

Newsletter

Newsletter 16
25th January 2019

St Joseph's Convent School Newsletter

ISI Inspection

As you are all aware, we were inspected this week. The Inspectors left on Thursday evening. We will be receiving a report in five weeks' time, which we will then be able to share with you. I would like to thank the girls and the staff for all their continued hard work and co-operation throughout the inspection process.

Mass

This week Prep 4 attended Mass celebrated by Fr. Pat. Sr Joan, Governor & Trustee accompanied us. The congregation and Fr. Pat were delighted to see us and informed us that they had been keeping us in their prayers at each morning Mass this week. We thank them for their support and prayers.

Illness

Please can we make you aware that there seems to be a number of bugs going around, which are causing high temperatures and sickness, as reflected in our Attendance figures. Please do not send your daughter into school if she is unwell. Thank you for your co-operation.

Premier Sports Club

After further review, children may now bring in their own sports kit in a clearly labelled bag to participate in the clubs. The girls will still be expected to leave school wearing their school coat. I am delighted to continue to receive such positive comments about our new array of clubs. Thank you.

Maths Enrichment Club – Prep 4

My sincere thanks to Fr Mathew for his support in offering our Prep 4 girls the opportunity of enrich Maths classes over the past weeks. As most of the entrance exams have now been completed, there will be no further classes this term.

Exam Revision Club – Prep 4

Similarly, Exam Revision classes will now stop on a Thursday .

This Week's Attendance %

| | |
|-----------|-----|
| Nursery | 75% |
| Infants 1 | 96% |
| Infants 2 | 83% |
| Infants 3 | 95% |
| Prep 1 | 96% |
| Prep 2 | 97% |
| Prep 3 | 99% |
| Prep 4 | 89% |

Young Voices

Parents will receive a letter today giving final details for next week's trip to the O2.

Random Act of Kindness

I am delighted to announce that Shona in Prep 4 has taken the selfless decision to donate her beautiful long princess hair to 'The Princess Trust'. We admire her thoughtfulness and are very proud of her. She will be having her hair cut after school on Monday. Well done Shona!

Mission Statement

We are a Mercy School
We live and work together,
as Jesus taught us,
spreading his loving friendship
to everyone we meet